

Photos by Ja'Mon Jackson.

Projection by Monica Stroik.

Screen-printing demonstration by Sardar Aziz.

SERIES

THE LATE SHIFT

Second Fridays, 7 - 10 pm, FREE

Enjoy gallery talks, artist receptions, music, live performances, hands-on artmaking, and three floors of open artists' studios.

Art in Motion

January 11

Shake off the frost and get moving this winter. Celebrate the art of motion with kinetic activities and performances by artists and local vendors. Bring your friends and start the year off creatively.

Love and Ritual

February 8

Spread love through art, music, and healing arts. Co-curated by The Omi Collective, an artist cooperative that works with creatives to develop artistic fashions and designs while maintaining a community spirit. Target Gallery also hosts the opening reception for Ritualisms.

Strength in Unity

March 8

For Women's History Month, hail the accomplishments of women in the arts and culture. Independent curator Amy Lokoff co-curates the evening. Also, sneak a peek and build your wish list for 9th Annual March150 Special Exhibition and Art Sale.

Art on the Horizon

April 12

Look towards the future with a night of new and innovative art and ideas. Meet up-and-coming talent during Target Gallery's opening for the 2019 Emerging Artists exhibition. Explore Mirror Mirror, a new temporary public art installation at King Street Park at the Waterfront by New York based design studio SOFTlab.

Alexandria Creates

May 10

Alexandria is a vibrant and creative collection of neighborhoods and cultures. It's one of the top 25 most diverse cities in the country and is located in the nation's most vibrant arts region. Celebrate our home town and take part in its next renaissance.

Summer Party

June 14

The waterfront comes to life with a big after-hours party to kick off the Late Shift Summer Series. Music, activities, and art await on all three floors. Target Gallery joins the festivities with its 2019 Solo Exhibition reception, too. Save the date for more Summer Series events on Fridays, July 12 and August 9.