Agreement between the City of Alexandria through its Office of the Arts and [Juror Name] for Juror Artist-Selection For Torpedo Factory Art Center

THIS AGREEMENT, is made on this X day of XXXXXXXXX 202X, by and between [Juror Name] ("juror") and the City of Alexandria, a municipal corporation of the Commonwealth of Virginia, ("City") through its Office of the Arts, a division of the City's Department of Parks, Recreation and Cultural Activities ("RPCA") (the "Parties").

Juror is a [basic credentials].

The City's Office of the Arts, manages the Torpedo Factory Art Center ("TFAC"). The mission of RPCA is to enrich the City of Alexandria by creating meaningful experiences through public space, cultural activities and programs. The mission of the TFAC is to ignite the creative spirit. TFAC strives to be a 21st Century leading arts institution with an outward looking broad and deep connection to Alexandrians, visitors, and artists built on equity, high performance, and a curated building of artists at its heart.

The City owns the TFAC located at 105 North Union Street in Alexandria, Virginia. The Alexandria City Council has determined that it is in the best interests of the public to lease studios to working artists at a subsidized rate. The City seeks artist of the highest quality to lease said studios. The selected Juror brings a wealth of experience selecting, curating and/or or reviewing visual art.

In consideration of the promises and mutual benefits contained herein and accruing to the Parties, the Parties agree as follow:

1. Understanding:

- a. The Juror shall score applications for the for a three (3) year studio lease at the TFAC called the "2022 Open Call for Resident Artists at Torpedo Factory Art Center".
- b. The Juror shall judge applications for studios; artists may apply individually or in a group of up to four (4) artists for a studio. Therefore, jurors may be scoring individual artists and/or groups of artists. Scoring a group of artists, the Juror shall score the application as a whole unit. Jurors shall judge each application based on the totality of material presented.
- c. Applicants' may also apply to only be an "Artist Pro Tem", giving them the ability to sublease rather than lease. They are scored in the same fashion.
- d. The City seeks the highest quality artists to fill its TFAC studios. The first priority is artistic merit (described in section 5, "The Application"). As TFAC juries for subsidized studios that are open to the public and require the ability to work among others, it also becomes important to consider factors such as an artist's experience, their background, intended use of studio, and ability to communicate with the public.

- e. Juror shall be scoring applications in three (3) Phases, with each application being worth a total of 100 points.
 - i. Phase I is a blind process that reviews artistic merit and is worth 50 points. Limited applicants move to Phase II.
 - ii. Phase II reviews the applicants' backgrounds and ability to express artistic statements. It is worth 25 points. Limited applicants move to Phase III.
 - iii. Phase III is in-person at the Art Center and reviews the applicants' ability to speak about and present their artwork and provide jurors with an in-person view of their artwork. Phase III is worth 25 points.
- f. The City uses the jurying application Submittable for its online jurying. Juror shall visit the TFAC for Phase III of the application process on the dates given in Section 4. "Jurors Timeline".
- g. Applications are open to all visual artists including, but not limited to, painting, ceramics, photography, jewelry, glass, fiber, printmaking, sculpture, digital art, mixed media, and new or extended media.
- h. The Juror shall be part of a group of four (4) total Jurors. The Jurors shall consist of four (4) experts from the field of art curatorial, galleries, museums, or academia. Each of the four (4) jurors shall independently take part in each phase of the application process. To foster a climate where equity and mutual respect are intrinsic, efforts will be made to include jurors from a broad spectrum of demographic and philosophical differences, including age, ethnicity, gender, physical abilities, educational background, and work experiences.
- i. As a municipality, the City is subject to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), and therefore all correspondence, scoring, and notes are subject to be viewed by the public when requested.
- j. The City shall advertise Juror's involvement in the application process to include a biography and photo.

2. Payment:

Juror shall be paid a total of $X,XXX.XX at the conclusion of this Agreement by the City. Payment shall be processed approximately sixty (60) working days after the City receives required payment forms outlined in section 3 "Responsibilities".

3. Responsibilities:

- a. The City shall be responsible for:
 - i. Marketing the application.
 - ii. Communication and coordination of applicants.
 - iii. Prepare and set up applications on Submittable.com.
 - iv. Help to facilitate and answer questions of Jurors throughout this process.
 - v. Place and assign applicants in studios as determined by the scores of the Jurors.
- b. The Juror shall be responsible for:
 - i. Signing this Agreement including providing contact information in section 7 "Contacts".
 - ii. Provide a short, one paragraph, biography to the City for potential publication.
 - iii. Take part in an online Juror orientation at a mutually agreeable day and time to the Parties.
 - iv. Payment Forms: Completing and returning a W9 Form (Department of the Treasury, Internal Revenue Service, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification), and invoice for the total listed in section 2 above to the City.
 - v. Meeting assigned deadlines (see section 4 "Jurors Timeline" below).
 - vi. Review and score applications according to the scoring system based on the criteria provided in section 5 "The Application".

4. Jurors Timeline:
